Raymond Burley

Raymond Burley is one of Britain's most experienced guitarists, having performed solo concerts, concertos, on film scores, radio, and television and in virtually every possible guitar ensemble combination.

As a soloist he has toured extensively throughout the UK, Europe, the USA, South America, Canada and the Far East, and has appeared many times at London's Wigmore Hall, the South Bank Centre's Purcell Room, and Birmingham's Symphony Hall. Raymond has been featured on BBC Radio, and worked with many of England's foremost orchestras including the BBC Symphony, the Philharmonia, the English Chamber Orchestra and the Royal Philharmonic.

FOSB

FOSB's mission is to raise money for the maintenance of St Bartholomew's Church, Lostwithiel.

Activities

FOSB organises a range of events throughout the year appealing to different interest groups in the catchment area of the town as well as remoter supporters and visitors. The purpose of these events is not only to raise money, but to increase public awareness of FOSB's mission and to recruit new Friends. In addition, FOSB raises money directly by soliciting one-off as well as regular donations by standing order, Gift Aided when possible. Legacies are always welcome.

Achievements

FOSB was set up in 1995. Thanks to their supporters the Friends have been able to make grants to St Bartholomew's PCC amounting to £104,215 towards:

- upgrading the church electrics (£5,000)
- renovating the vestry (£3,215)
- restoring the church roof (£40,000)
- a new central heating system (£16,000)
- renovation of the Tower and Spire (£32,000)
- re-hanging the Bells (£8,000).
